Miss Charlotte Wyeth Is Bride of A. Chalmers Charles in St. Patrick's.

MISS KINNEAR MARRIED

Philip Bartlett Brewster Leads
Miss Mary Post to the Altar.

Miss Charlotte Grosvenor Wyeth, a daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Stephen G. Williams and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Grosvenor Goodridge, was married yesterday in the Lady chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present for the wedding ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. J. J. Quinn of the cathedral, assisted by the Rev. Michael Shea of St. Joseph's Seminary, Westchester.

The bride walked to the altar with her stepfather. She wore a gown of soft white satin made with a court train of broad satin, and her veil, which had been worn by her mother when a bride, was of point lace and tulle. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride attendants were the Misses Caroline L. and Elizabeth Jarvis Wyeth, sisters of the bride; Charlotte Deland and Jeannette Plagg. They were dressed alike in costumes of American Beauty satin combined with gold net and finished with capes of blue material. They wore large transparent hats to correspond and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

William D. Judson acted as best man and the ushers were L. Howard Brown, Victor Froment, James B. Spencer and Elmer Farwell.

Shortly after the wedding ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 9 East Seventy-fifth street.

SMYLYE-KINNEAR.

Bridegroom's Sister and Bride's Brother Are Attendants.

The wedding of Miss Karen Kinnear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson S. Kinnear of 137 Riverside Drive, to Charles Albert Smylye, son by a former marriage of Mrs. Edmund Le Roy Dow, took place yesterday afternoon in the ballroom of the Plaza. The Rev. Dr. Andrew Underhill, an old friend of the bride's family, officiating. Miss Kinnear, who wore a costume of white satin trimmed with duchess lace and a veil of same lace, had Miss Margaret Smylye, sister of the bridegroom, as her only attendant. Miss Smylye's costume was of cloth of gold combined with orchid net.

Lawrence Kinnear, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The ushers

GEORGE E. SPRING, SENATOR, IS DEAD

Member From Cattaraugus-
Chautauqua District Long
Had Been Ill.

BUFFALO, Jan. 25.—Word reached here today of the death in a Baltimore hospital of State Senator George E. Spring. Senator Spring was born in Franklinville, N. Y., on October 27, 1859. He was elected from the Cattaraugus-Chautauqua district in 1914 and was re-elected and reelected in 1916, although ill. Senator Spring was second on the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, chairman of Labor and Industry and a member of the committees on Internal Affairs, Taxation and Retrenchment and Canals.

ALBANY, Jan. 25.—The State government will be represented at the funeral of Senator Spring by Gov. Whitman and delegations from the Senate and Assembly. The funeral will be held at Senator Spring's home in Franklinville, Cattaraugus county, Monday afternoon.

Announcement of Mr. Spring's death did not come as a surprise to the members of the Legislature, as recent reports from the hospital had indicated that the case was hopeless.

It is generally understood that there will be no special election to fill the vacancy in the Cattaraugus-Chautauqua district. As the Republicans have a substantial majority in the Senate the party leaders in the district are said to be in charge until the next primary election, and then choosing a candidate to be voted upon in November.

WHITE HOUSE DINNER DANCE.

Miss Wilson and Miss Bones Are Hostesses of 150 Guests.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The White House was the scene of a dinner dance this evening. Miss Wilson and Miss Bones being the hostesses. There were about fifty guests from among the young married and unmarried circles and about 100 other guests were asked later for dancing in the East Room.

The President and Mrs. Wilson dined privately and went into the East Room for a time and looked on at the dancing and had chats with friends. The guests ranged from the debutantes to the middle aged among dancers. This dinner dance was postponed from last Thursday because of the death of Admiral Dewey.

Representative and Mrs. Wallace Dempsey of Lockport, N. Y., entertained at dinner to-night at the Army and Navy Club.

Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont of New York are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, who will entertain at dinner for them to-morrow evening. Mrs. Belmont is the guest of the week of Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth.

The Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. William Phillips have as their guests to-morrow the ex-Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Winthrop, for whom they will have a dinner party to-morrow evening.

SUFFS TO RESUME PICKETING.

Delegation Going From Here to the White House.

The suffragists are going to take up again this afternoon the latest phase of picketing the White House. It was announced yesterday by the New York City Committee of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage that the delegation will do duty there from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock to-day. Part of the delegation left yesterday afternoon and the rest will start for Washington at 9:15 this morning.

Among the picketers are to be Miss Alice Carpenter, chairman of the New York City Committee; Miss Anna Constantine, Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. George Elder Adams, Mrs. Walter B. Thompson, Mrs. Charles W. Farnham and Mrs. John J. Williams.

They will carry a large Inez Milholland memorial banner, seven feet wide, and two other banners bearing the inscriptions, "We demand an Amendment to the Federal Constitution Enfranchising Women" and "The New York City Committee Delegation."
